

2016 Summer Institute

Access the resources made available by the Library of Congress to bring local history into your classroom.

This 5-day institute is designed to:

- ✓ The opportunity to create unique lessons that focus on California history and incorporate digitized materials found through the Library of Congress.
 - ✓ Scholar lectures, model lessons, and workshops on teaching strategies.
 - ✓ Two Saturday follow-up sessions during the school year where participants will review student work from institute-designed lessons.
- ✓ Registration: $600 ($500/person for groups of 3+)
