

Contra Costa County Office of Education
now offers TWO ways to earn your

California High School Equivalency Credential

Computer-Based GED Testing:

- The test is entirely computer-based with multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. It consists of four test modules: Reasoning through Language Arts, Mathematical Reasoning, Science, and Social Studies.
- Computer-based testing puts all the information learners need in one place, and it offers a flexible, reliable testing experience. Available in both English and Spanish.
- The new GED improves access for test-takers to register and schedule online 24-hours a day, 7-days a week at www.gedtesting.com
- Provides quick turnaround of results and access to official score reports, as well as the option of forwarding them to other educational institutions.

Paper-based HiSET Testing:

- The test is paper-based with multiple choice questions and a writing essay . It consists of five sub-tests: Language Arts-Reading, Language Arts-Writing, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies.
- Go on-line at hiset.ets.org to create a testing profile, pay fees and schedule your tests.
- Familiar paper-pencil test, available in both Spanish and English. Additional resources are available on-line at hiset.ets.org
- Scores are available in 7-10 days and can be found by checking your on-line HiSET account.
- To prepare for the test contact your local adult school or explore the practice resources on the HiSET website.
